An invitation Towards Growing Ethical Hospitality workshop

The afternoon's workshop is an opportunity to grow our understanding and develop new processes for hosting events, with social and environmental awareness. There will be time to explore why we need to grow in our hospitality skills. We will also audit our current processes, look at resources, examples of practice and review suggestions. We will be discussing hospitality in our families, parishes, schools and businesses. Finally, we will be creating plans and tools for the future, to support our development towards ethical hospitality.
